POLICIES

Recall of off-duty firefighters for incidents policy

The Recall of off-duty firefighters for incidents policy has been published on the intranet.

Key points

Firefighters may be recalled to duty for incidents when additional resources are required for an incident beyond the resources that are on duty. This policy has been updated as follows:

- Complies with Fire and Rescue NSW Regulation, current firefighter award conditions in relation to recall when off-duty, and current workers compensation requirements.
- States who has authority to recall an off-duty firefighter to an incident and who can be recalled to duty for incidents.
- Outlines the safety issues that both the off-duty firefighter and the person recalling them to duty must consider.

Rescindments

Publication of this policy rescinds the following:

- In Orders 1998-16, Firefighters assisting at incidents while on duty.
- In Orders 1995-19, Attendance at fires and other incidents outside usual hours of duty by Station officers appointed to country brigades.
- Operations Bulletin 2024-07 Off-duty firefighters at incidents.

Who needs to read the policy?

This policy applies to all permanent and retained firefighters and includes officers.

PROCEDURES

SOG 6.3 Railway incidents

The SOG 6.3 Railway incidents and check sheet have been published on the Standard Operational Guidelines and Rail Incidents toolkits on the intranet. Capability Statement – Incidents in Railways has been published on the Capability Statements and the Rail Incidents toolkits on the intranet.

Key points

On 8 July 2026 FRNSW assumed the emergency response role for fire and hazardous materials incidents on the Sydney Metro rail network. SOG 6.3 applies when FRNSW is responded to any incident on any heavy, metro, or light rail network. The SOG includes sections on hazards, communications, managing power supplies in the rail corridor, and principles for managing the incident.

The Capability statement describes FRNSW's capability for managing incidents on railways.

Rescindments

Publication of this SOG, check sheet and capability statement rescinds the following:

- Operations Bulletin 2009-02 Removing power from RailCorp overhead power lines (Version 01)
- Operations Bulletin 2012-01 Entering the rail corridor (Version 01)
- In Orders 2009-19 Incidents involving the RailCorp network

Who needs to read the SOG?

This standard operating guideline must be read by all firefighters.
